- 9.1 In the respondent party - are you aware of any. ☐ Yes ☒ No ☐ I'm not sure yet physical, mental or learning disability or health conditions which requires support?

If yes, tell us what this disability or condition is and what support that anyone in the respondent party, including representative and witness would need as the claim progresses through the system. Consider any hearing that may take place at tribunal buildings.

We know people with disabilities sometimes need support to access information and use our services. We call this a reasonable adjustment. Some reasonable adjustments need to be agreed by a judge, and you can discuss with the tribunal if your needs change.

Reasonable adjustments can include:

- documents in alternative formats, colours and fonts
- help with communicating, sight, hearing, speaking and interpretation
- access and mobility support if a hearing takes place in person
